

Fallbrook Area Parks

Santa Margarita County Preserve

37385 De Luz Road, Fallbrook

(760) 728-2303

Open 8 a.m. to 30 mins. before sunset

This 221-acre preserve has a nice equestrian-friendly staging area and 1.5-miles of multi-use trails that are great for horseback riding, hiking and bird watching. The area has a rich cultural history; for centuries the abounding resources in the river valley sustained Native Americans, named Luisenos by the Spanish explorers. During the Mexican era, Rancho Santa Margarita y Las Flores was granted to brothers Pio and Andres Pico in 1841. Today the original rancho boundaries encompass Camp Pendleton.

Rainbow County Park

5157 5TH St., Fallbrook

(760) 728-2303

Open 9:30 a.m. to sunset, daily

Rainbow Park is a local park for residents of Rainbow, located in northern San Diego County. Rainbow Park provides active recreation elements such as ballfields, tennis and basketball courts. It also has picnic amenities where families can relax and host group gatherings. Reservations are required for organized sports and larger picnic groups.

Clemmens Lane County Park

344 Clemmens Lane, Fallbrook

(760) 728-2303

Open sunrise to sunset, daily

Located in west Fallbrook, this half-acre park includes both junior and tot-lot playgrounds, a picnic plaza with a covered pavilion, barbecues, a synthetic turf soccer field and a sand volleyball court. The park also boasts a sweeping view of the Santa Margarita Mountains and hiking trails to the north. Clemmens Lane is within walking distance of the shops and restaurants in downtown Fallbrook.

Don Dussault County Park

832 Alturas St., Fallbrook

(760) 728-2303

Open sunrise to sunset, daily

Nestled in a quiet neighborhood, Don Dussault is a 0.75-acre local park featuring a community playground. Bench seating is available from multiple vantage points, and mature trees provide shade throughout the day. While there is no parking on site, the park is easily accessible by sidewalk via the local neighborhood.

Leash Free Area at Live Oak County Park

Corner of Reche Rd. and Gird Rd., Fallbrook

(760) 728-2303

Open 8 a.m. to sunset (closed December 25)

At the corner of Reche Road and Gird Road Live Oak County Park has a 3,000 square foot leash-free area for dogs and humans to play and socialize. The area is complete with a parking lot, restroom, tables, benches, pet waste stations, trash receptacles and drinking fountains for both dogs and their owners. A maximum of four dogs per owner are allowed. There is a $3 per vehicle day-use fee, or an annual pass can be purchased at the park office for $25. In the event of rain, the area will not open for a minimum of 24 hours. For more park and event information visit sdparks.org or call (760) 728-2303.
